Hi Mat, Monica,

I have uncomfortable and disturbing news to share.

Elora just came to me and said she needed to talk to me. It was about her friend Makayla from church. After what she told me I told her that I needed to share this information with you and that she does not need to be worried that her friend will be in trouble.

I explained to Elora that however Makayla's parents handle the situation is out of our control and that if Makayla ever came to Elora in church and complained that she got in trouble, I helped Elora to handle that situation on what to say.

Ok. Here goes.

Welp. This email has taken me 55min to write. Elora just came out of her room 8:44pm to tell me more about what happened.

Ok.

Yesterday when Elora was over Makayla's, Makayla inappropriately touched Elora and kissed her on the lips. This apparently was twice. Makayla has kissed her before and tried to pull up her shirt. Yesterday, Makayla was able to pull Elora's underwear down and tried to touch her vagina. Elora was in tears and used the word "pussy". I asked where she got that from and she said Makayla. I corrected her with the correct term of vagina and asked more questions.

When I asked how she reacted to Makayla trying to kiss her and pull her pants down, she said she just froze and would try to bunch up her legs to her chest to protect her private parts from being touched. I then explained the 3 roles, fight, flight and fawn and that she did nothing wrong and this is a normal reaction when scared to fawn. Makayla would tell her dad that they were "painting".

I cannot get our babies face out of my brain sharing this experience.

I am completely disturbed and I hope you will agree with me that Elora is not to go over Makayla's house anymore. Please include me on any conversations you have with her mother through text or email. I have her number but I feel it would be more appropriate if you handle this conversation since this is a friend from your church. Elora has a plan in place if Makayla is to come up to her at church, and Elora would like to sit up with you two during service in April.

Please keep me updated.

Thank you,
Veronika

Thank you for bring this to our attention. Elora did not mention any of this to us. This will be addressed immediately and there will be no future play dates planned. The only concerns she raised was getting hurt a few times playing.

I don't believe you understand the severity of the situation.
These conversations need to be in writing. Pragmatically.
It protects our children.
It is almost 2pm. This is not being immediately addressed Mathew.

I absolutely understand the severity of the situation. I read your first email at 10:18 and immediately got in contact with Doug. He understands the severity of the situation as well and will be working with Karla to address this and will get back to us as soon as possible. I do not have an email address for Karla and asked Doug to please have her email us both. Please do not misconstrue this for not communicating. These are situations where whatever issue is between us is put to the side so that we can address this together. That is what I am doing and ask that accusatory tones be left out of the equation. I am absolutely devastated that Elora has experienced this as I know you are. I jumped into action because I felt like my heart was exploding.

"I jumped into action because I felt like my heart was exploding."

I completely understand and relate.

I apologize if my email felt accusatory.

By no means do I feel blame or ill will towards anyone.

I am concerned for Mikayla and Ona.

Thank you for advocating an email to both of us. And our past has absolutely nothing to do with what Elora experienced, I agree with you and will approach this situation as I have approached all our issues with integrity and grace.

Let me know how I can support your family with this experience with Elora.

I just got home from Montana this evening, and spoke at length with Makayla about their entire playdate. They spent a lot of time outside, played on the trampoline and rode scooters, and were inside for a bit. When they were inside they played upstairs and painted/drew (I'll include some pictures of their beautiful work) and were dancing (and spinning and swinging each other) to some different songs. Our older daughter and Doug both heard them laughing and singing the whole time. I pushed pretty hard asking for more and more details and asking other indirect questions, and I did not hear anything concerning when discussing the day. Hopefully this is helpful information.

Kinds regards,
Karla

Good morning.

I am deeply concerned after reading Karla's dismissing email.

None of those drawings are Elora's and "drawing" was code to put Elora in an uncomfortable position.

Makayla held Elora's wrists and wouldn't allow her to pull up her pants and underwear.

Makayla told Elora to "touch my pussy".

Elora had to hold her knees to her chest to block Makayla from touching her vagina. This is not dramatic talk. This is our daughter in tears being brave telling me every detail.

This behavior from Makayla is learned.

Someone is teaching her the word "pussy".

Someone is teaching her to be sneaky as she lied to her father and told them they were "drawing" when Elora said they never drew and that was code that immediately made Elora uncomfortable. Elora said all she wanted to do was play Barbie's.

This is learned behavior and needs to be investigated.

Again, please let me know how I can support your family with Elora.

Hi,

Now that the police are involved they'll be doing an investigation, correct?

I would like to take Elora out to dinner tonight or tomorrow and hug her and let her know daddys' got her. Please let me know what times work best the next couple evenings.

Yes. There is an investigation.

I just got off the phone with Dawson Place. Elora has a 2 hour assessment with Leah on April 24th at 10am at 1509 California st Everett wa 98201.

On going therapy will be in Monroe.

I can imagine the desire to hold your baby girl.

Tonight doesn't work as we have plans.

Since you haven't gotten back to me regarding Aidan and Raina for gymnastics with Elora, would you like to take Elora to gymnastics and dinner for some special daddy/daughter time? You could pick her up from school and I can meet you at our pickup spot when done. Or. She could sleepover and we all meet up with you for Baseball? What works best for you?

I will need all the information for what you have signed Elora up for as I don't know what you're referencing. The school has already offered a free therapy program and I would like to take them up on that.

Friday after school works out great for pick up and I can drop her off at baseball on Saturday. I will not be coaching this week as I have a funeral to attend.

We can discuss gymnastics in our talking parents thread.

Mathew, I just received a call from Kim from Dawson Place where she confirmed that YOU CALLED HER AND CANCELED ELORAS SCHEDULED THERAPY SESSION saying "it's not a severe situation and at this time does not consent for counseling/therapy."

I have given you all the information at the time I received it and this is just disgusting that you are against counseling for our little girl.

Considering the severity of this situation and what you have done not thinking of our daughter and her wellbeing, I cannot allow you to take Elora to gymnastics and to dinner on my residential time tomorrow.

We will resume normal pickup on your residential time on April 4th after school.

And Monica, do not lie to me that "no one wants court".
You both are high conflict personalities that have no desire to co parent for the health and safety and the well being of our children.

No communication is necessary. See you at the pre trial conference in April.

That is incorrect. I called Dawson's place to ask about the program because you did not respond to my request for information. Kim told me that she would have someone call me tomorrow to give me information. I said that I DID understand the severity of the situation but wanted to understand what this program was before fully consenting because I did not want to traumatize Elora further and have zero information on Dawson's place. I did not cancel any appointments.

I gave you the information I had!

You were completely in the know as well as Monica and Colin.

Kim called me and said verbatim to the previous email.

And yes Elora's assessment, in a field that specializes in Elora's exact situation, was canceled due to you saying to Kim and documented, "it's not a severe situation and at this time does not consent for counseling/therapy."

Then what I said was misunderstood because I did not cancel the appointment. I have someone calling me tomorrow to explain to me how the assessment works and I will make it clear that it was not my intention to cancel. I did not say that it was not a severe situation and if she documented that then all I can say is that my anxious rambling might have been confusing because it has been very difficult to have a clear thought this week.

I will not accept the accusation that I am not considering Elora's well being. All I have been doing this week has been considering her well being. I am not with her, I am not able to hold her, and I am not able to tell her that she is safe. I am sick over all of it and I am struggling to put thoughts together. I wish you would have told me that you were looking at Dawson's so that we could talk through it together so that I could be on the same page as you. I have to play catch up on all of this because I am not with her and have no insight into what is happening in real time. I was also completely caught off guard when a police officer called me. I wish you would have told me that you filed a report so that I could again be on the same page. I am not fighting anything I am consistently being caught off guard.

When I speak to the person at Dawson's I will be clear that I am not asking to cancel.

You were completely in the know as well as Monica and Colin.

Kim called me and said verbatim to the previous email.
And yes Elora's assessment, in a field that specializes in Elora's exact situation, was canceled due to you saying to Kim and documented, "it's not a severe situation and at this time does not consent for counseling/therapy."

You got the same information at the same time I got it about Dawsons Place!!!
You are calling Kim a liar and your response is an over explaining mess.
You are making everything difficult.

At 10:35am I called you on the phone and left you a 3 minute voicemail asking you to call me and come together with a healthy, stable, 50/50 parenting plan and you send me the most foul, slap in the face, not fair or just parenting plan.
NO YOU ARE NOT THINKING OF THE WELL-BEING OF OUR CHILDREN.

Then what I said was misunderstood because I did not cancel the appointment. I have someone calling me tomorrow to explain to me how the assessment works and I will make it clear that it was not my intention to cancel. I did not say that it was not a severe situation and if she documented that then all I can say is that my anxious rambling might have been confusing because it has been very difficult to have a clear thought this week.

I will not accept the accusation that I am not considering Elora's well being. All I have been doing this week has been considering her well being. I am not with her, I am not able to hold her, and I am not able to tell her that she is safe. I am sick over all of it and I am struggling to put thoughts together. I wish you would have told me that you were looking at Dawson's so that we could talk through it together so that I could be on the same page as you. I have to play catch up on all of this because I am not with her and have no insight into what is happening in real time. I was also completely caught off guard when a police officer called me. I wish you would have told me that you filed a report so that I could again be on the same page. I am not fighting anything I am consistently being caught off guard.

Hello,

I spoke with Dawson Place this morning and they confirmed I did not cancel any assessments for Elora. Dawson Place themselves canceled the assessment based on the Parenting Plan not being followed in Joint Decision Making. They need both parents to have all the information and agree together about the services. I was not a part of you calling and asking them for services, that was not a joint decision. I do not have all of the information from you in regards to the case number or any of the details you provided Dawson Place. This was all grounds for their decision, not mine. If you would like to provide me with all the information in regards to our daughter so we can properly assess the situation and get her the help she needs, I'm more than willing to do so. But not being provided the information and continuing to piece together everything doesn't help Elora.

Please provide me with the police case number.

Mathew,

I CALLED YOU ON THE PHONE AND LEFT A 3 MINUTE MESSAGE.

I emailed you IMMEDIATELY after speaking with Kim with ALL the information she gave me.

You have been IN THE KNOW with every detail as I have gotten it.

You SPOKE TO THE DEPUTY ON THE PHONE and should have gotten all the information you are seeking.

YOU HAVE ALWAYS BEEN COMMUNICATED TO ABOUT EVERY DETAIL IN INFORMATION REGARDING OUR CHILDREN. ALWAYS.

It is YOU that have not let our children call me to say goodnight.

So I got the kids a phone so you can connect anytime.

It is YOU that won't tell me about birthday parties or events regarding our children.

IT IS YOU WHO IS WITHHOLDING INFORMATION.

Stop the unnecessary games. Stop the lies. It's all recorded and everyone on this email thread as well as Dawson Place knows your lies. As of Monday I will have a statement.

As I see it you only have one choice if you want 50/50 and a healthy co parenting life.

Have your LLL send me what is in the best interest of our children for 50/50 so I can review and sign by next week.

We can go to pre trial conference and say we settled and move on with our lives.

If you chose not too, then I have to again take what Monica has said, "Nobody wants court." Text dated February 29th, as another bold face lie and presume that you two only want court and I will come out with every bit of evidence that clearly states BY PROFESSIONALS how your residential time needs to be cut to just every other weekend starting on Fridays after school.

Going back to the importance of this email thread, I DO NOT CONSENT to Elora going to church with you on Sundays at this time.

While there is an investigation I don't want her anywhere near that family. This is guidance from the sheriff and has told me I'm "on the right track" and "doing all the right things."

Here is more information I just received IN THIS MOMENT.

Per a phone call with Cory at Dawsons Place.

"Conversation was conducted with Mathew Ralidak with a supervisor present. That supervisor DID NOT reinstate the assessment because Mathew DID NOT clarify that is what he wanted."

Do you see how this looks?

I don't need a supervisor present on my calls.

Do the right thing Mathew. Call Dawsons Place and give them a clear yes to the assessment in April. They will assess Elora to see if she will need ongoing therapy for being molested by her church friend and next door neighbor to you.

Ok?

Thanks. Have a great Easter weekend! Our children will call you from their phone, on their time, like they ALWAYS have.

I have had it with you.

How dare you berate me in past emails about not including you in information when Elora just asked, "did dad tell you he took me out of school and took me out for lunch?"

I cc you on EVERY email to the school with anything regarding our children and their whereabouts.

How are you going to lie through this one?

You are only making yourself look bad.

I absolutely love you taking Elora out to lunch. I feel it's important that she knows her dad is in her corner and that she has that special time with you. What I don't love is you telling me I don't include you on information (which I do) and then turn around and take our daughter out of school without telling me!!!

Do better.

Have a great Easter weekend!

Good morning.

As of today, 4/1/24, Dawsons Place still has Elora canceled for her assessment. What you need to do is call Virginia, the supervisor, or Kim and say they have your "consent" for Eloras assessment.

We need professionals to say if Elora needs ongoing therapy.

Once there is agreement on both sides, per the parenting plan that I emailed to Dawsons Place, they can schedule Eloras assessment.

Please make this a priority.

Thank you,

The lying needs to stop Mathew.

And please always cc our significant others on this email thread.

I find it interesting how when I call Dawson Place, I immediately get Kim or Cory on the phone. They are responsive. Easy to get a hold of.

I'm then transferred to Virginia, the supervisor you SPOKE TO ON FRIDAY.

So. No. You did not call on Friday and Monday and receive no call back. You spoke to Virginia directly on Friday and said "you did not consent to an assessment for our daughter at this time."

Virginia also told me today that you did not call yesterday and leave a message.

Our daughter was molested whether you think so or not.

She is strong, resilient and doesn't play the victim role. Elora has a plan in place for when she goes back to your church.

And I feel it's important to have a professional assess her to tell us, as her parents, if she needs on going therapy.

So. I'll repeat my last email.

" Good morning.

Please make this a priority and call Virginia and talk with her directly about consenting to our daughter's assessment.

Stop lying please.

You are only making yourself look bad.

Oh. And one more thing. If you desire 50/50, I would think your only option at this point, would be creating peace with me and having me sign a 50/50 parenting plan.

With Ms. Sarah letter regarding Raina and Dr. Bowker saying you don't follow Dr orders, I can see this unfortunate add on of you not consenting to an assessment for our daughter after being molested twice on your time might sway the courts decision in a 50/50 parenting plan.

I understand you moved back into the riverview school district, which boggles my mind since you had such a great home, next to a beautiful and easy airport for you and Monica's work travels, into a community that does not support you, only to think you are going to be granted 50/50 so easily.

The truth is, as far as parenting goes, nothing changed with your move.

You do not advocate for peace.

You lie.

You give up Father's Day and special one on one time with our children.

You constantly take me to court, going on 25x in 4 years with a SECOND trial?! For what?

You are only hurting our children.

It's really simple to get the life you want.

Just live it in love, be grateful for the time you have and feel good about asking me for more time whenever it works in your schedule.

Or. Send me the 50/50 parenting plan. Take out all the BS about limitations and finding a new Dr.

The 50/50 parenting plan should look exactly like the one we have now with the BS of limitations removed, my last name added to our children's last name, the 72 hours shortened to 48 and transition time on Sunday at 6pm changed to Fridays after school.

Ex. 2

I have always shown you and Monica my desire for peace and unity in co parenting. I will continue to put our children's best interests at the forefront of my being and do the right thing for all involved. I will continue to advocate for peace between us. Even if you can't.

Please call Virginia at Dawsons place and redirect the energy to our daughter's assessment.

That is the right thing to do.

And if you'd like a 50/50 parenting plan easily with no thousands wasted on mediation and a 2nd trial that will not go your way like the first one, you know my email and how to get me that paperwork by your LLL.

Thank you,

Upon receiving our case report I am extremely concerned with what the sheriff said on page 1 of 1.

"I looked up Makayla in mark43 and found a case similar to this one that had taken place at Makayla's home. The case number is C19007687."

Thank you Monica for doing the right thing and taking Elora home when she expressed concern about Makayla being at church.

Next time when I text you a message regarding my daughter (thank you for taking her out shopping) please be respectful and communicate back with me that she will call me when she's available.

I never heard from Elora and when I showed her my text to you she said, "Monica never told me you text her and wanted me to call!"

That made her sad and it's really not a good look for you.

You can request these case summary reports as they are public information.

Dear Lori Vanderburg and Fran Gatica:

I am writing regarding my daughter, Elora Ralidak, age 9. Her mother, Veronika Goodnight, sought services from Dawson Place after a situation with a friend, another 9 year old, on Sunday, March 24, 2024.

I first found out about Dawson Place when Elora's mother emailed and told me that Elora was scheduled for an assessment. I had no prior knowledge that she was looking into an assessment or that she secured a provider for Elora. As Dawson is now aware of, health care (non-emergency) decisions regarding Elora are to be made jointly by Veronika and myself according to the parenting plan signed by the Court. See copy attached. When I pointed out to Veronika that the parenting plan required the decision on Elora's health to be made jointly, she become very upset and accused me of cancelling the appointment. However, in a follow up call with Dawson, it was confirmed that you cancelled the appointment due to the required joint decision-making clause in the parenting plan. There have been several incorrect statements made by Veronika regarding my contact with Dawson. I ask that Dawson utilize email for communication for this case and that both parents, Veronika and I, be included in all communications. This will prevent miscommunication and allow us to focus on meeting Elora's needs. Please let us know who we should be communicating with.

I assume Veronika took time to research the best way to approach discussions, find a provider, and help Elora before contacting Dawson. When I contacted Dawson informing you that I did not give consent for Elora to be assessed at that time, I was merely asking for the same consideration, to be allowed to do my own research before committing her to an assessment. This is not something to be taken lightly and I wanted to make an educated decision regarding matters concerning the health of my daughter.

I did some online research on Dawson but was unable to find specifics on what the two-hour appointment/assessment will entail. Could you please provide Veronika and I with details on how the appointment will go? Will the first appointment be primarily for intake or will Elora be meeting with any providers (mental health, physical exam, therapist etc.)? If yes, will she be expected to meet with the providers individually or will we, her parents, be allowed to go with her?

I anticipate that prior to discussing this sensitive subject with Elora, Dawson would interview both parents individually to get the facts from each parent's perspective. I understand that Veronika has already given her point of view to Dawson as she stated to me in an email, "It's all recorded and everyone on this email thread as well as Dawson Place knows your lies." I do not know what she is referring to, but I would like to speak with an intake specialist prior to the May 5th assessment/meeting with Elora. Please provide me with a few days and times he or she is available.

Ex. 2

I think it is important to note that on the day of the incident, Sunday, March 24th, Elora came home to our house at 3:00 p.m. My wife, Monica, and I were both at home. Elora was there until 5:45 p.m. at which time we got ready for her to go to her mom's house. When Elora got home, she told us about an injury to her toe and her finger, and that she fell off a scooter and bit her lip while playing. Other than that, during the 2.75 hours she was there, she played, happily drove the tractor around the yard with me, and was generally in an upbeat mood.

Unbeknownst to me, on Tuesday, March 26, 2024, Veronika filed a police report. I was unaware of this until the police contacted me the same day. Then I found out about the appointment Veronika scheduled for Elora with Dawson on March 26th.

I am seeking information and procedure that will assist all of us in providing the best support for Elora and her health and well-being in mind.

Thank you for allowing me to share this with you.

Sincerely,

Mathew Ralidak

* I had already given Dawsons Place our parenting plan in an email dated 3/28/24 in regards to setting up the assessment.

Dear all,

This is so unnecessary and doesn't have to be this complicated.

On the night of Monday March 25th as I put all children to bed, Elora came out and asked if she could share something with me.

I stayed calm in absolute horror as Elora poured her heart out to me, asking questions about if what her friend did was right.

Immediately after soothing her and helping her through a very traumatic situation with pragmatism and a mother's care, I formulated a very well written email to Mathew with our significant others cc'd on email thread. It has always been my priority to follow our parenting plan and keep Mathew in the know with everything regarding our children even though he does not.

I made the decision to report the incident the next day after much discussion with people of authority based on that was the right thing to do and only when Mathews communication to the girls parents wasn't immediately addressed.

Every bit of information I received I immediately shared with Mathew on that email thread.

After I reported the incident I contacted Dawsons Place. You came referred by the authorities as well as a good friend in the community who has unfortunately dealt with such issues.

My contact with Dawsons Place was based on the knowledge and desire that I wanted a professional to assess Elora to see if she even needed ongoing therapy. I cannot make that decision. I felt it best to have someone who is trained in this trauma.

I am confident that the way I handled mine and Eloras conversation, the connection we have that she shared her truth and knows I wouldn't dismiss her, will carry her into her future without trauma or feeling like a victim. And again, as confident as I feel, I cannot make that decision for my 9 year old daughter and felt it best and appropriate to schedule an assessment for Elora.

Mat has been in the know every second of the way.

Ex. 2

I stand firm in my decision to contact Dawsons Place to have a professional assess her and share with Mat and I if she needed ongoing therapy.

I spoke with Kim. I sent my parenting plan to her and did not make any decision without Mathew.

I just scheduled an assessment and immediately shared with Mathew.

It was only an hour after scheduling the assessment did Kim call me back and say, "the father called us and said, "this is not a big deal, I do not consent to services at this time."

That is what I meant by it's all documented.

I have an entire email thread with lies from Mathew saying he never called Dawsons Place and cancelled the assessment and I have Kim, Cory and the supervisor (blanking on name) telling me different.

Because I know Mathew personally and understand his pathological lying this is normal behavior for him. I have been very apologetic to the team at Dawsons Place for having such a high conflict personality to co parent with.

All I desire is for Elora to be assessed to even see if she needs ongoing therapy for this traumatic incident.

I have done all the right things morally and by my daughter's unheard voice.

Elora constantly feels dismissed by her father and why she came to me to share what happened.

I remain unbiased and clear headed despite what my daughter went through and all I want is a professional to assess her because that is the next right thing to do this moment and for the wellbeing of our daughter.

Mathew, please stop making everything difficult, involving people who I have no idea who I'm emailing. In your email to these people you say they are the ones canceling yet you just said, " When I contacted Dawson informing you that I did not give consent for Elora to be assessed at that time,"

So you are admitting that you canceled the appointment.

You've always been given information as I have received it.

Ex. 2

I'm assuming we are still on board for Elora's assessment May 2nd at 8am. I understand the protocol as Kim and the supervisor explained how the 2 hours will go.

I apologize again for this unnecessary communication and the drama surrounding a little girl who hasn't even had an assessment at this point.

In gratitude,
Veronika Goodnight

Dear Lori Vanderburg and Fran Gatica:

I am writing regarding my daughter, Elora Ralidak, age 9. Her mother, Veronika Goodnight, sought services from Dawson Place after a situation with a friend, another 9 year old, on Sunday, March 24, 2024.

I first found out about Dawson Place when Elora's mother emailed and told me that Elora was scheduled for an assessment. I had no prior knowledge that she was looking into an assessment or that she secured a provider for Elora. As Dawson is now aware of, health care (non-emergency) decisions regarding Elora are to be made jointly by Veronika and myself according to the parenting plan signed by the Court. See copy attached. When I pointed out to Veronika that the parenting plan required the decision on Elora's health to be made jointly, she become very upset and accused me of cancelling the appointment. However, in a follow up call with Dawson, it was confirmed that you cancelled the appointment due to the required joint decision-making clause in the parenting plan. There have been several incorrect statements made by Veronika regarding my contact with Dawson. I ask that Dawson utilize email for communication for this case and that both parents, Veronika and I, be included in all communications. This will prevent miscommunication and allow us to focus on meeting Elora's needs. Please let us know who we should be communicating with.

I assume Veronika took time to research the best way to approach discussions, find a provider, and help Elora before contacting Dawson. When I contacted Dawson informing you that I did not give
