3. Basis

The court has considered the motion and any supporting documents, response from the restrained person (if any), relevant sections of the court record, and any testimony or argument.

4. Findings:

☐ Uncontested. The restrained person did not contest the motion for renewal.

☒ Evidence. The restrained person did not prove by a preponderance of the evidence that there has been a substantial change in circumstances as provided in RCW 7.105.405(5) and that the restrained person will not:

☒ (for dv orders) resume acts of domestic violence against the protected person or the protected person's children or household members who are minors or vulnerable adults when the protection order expires.

☐ (for sexual assault orders) engage in, or attempt to engage in, physical or nonphysical contact with the protected person when the order expires.

☐ (for stalking orders) resume acts of stalking against the protected person or the protected person's family or household members when the order expires.

☐ (for anti-harassment orders) resume harassment of the protected person when the order expires.

☐ (for vulnerable adult orders) resume acts of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, or neglect against the vulnerable adult when the order expires.

☒ Other findings: The court does not find that the Respondent has acknowledged responsibility for the underlying acts that led to entry of the protection order in April. The Petitioner requested a renewal until a week after the adequate cause and temporary orders hearing in the family law matter in 20-3-03830-3 SEA. Therefore, the court finds a basis to renew the order for less than one year. The court's oral ruling is incorporated by reference herein as if fully set forth in writing.
